"A Penny for Your Thoughts"

I'll bet you're so tired working on that term paper that the thought of having to copy "the whole darn thing" takes all the joy out of the last week-end of dates before final exams.

It only costs five pennies a hundred words to have your term typed, and the Steno-Bureau is at your service.

Call 940 or 960-Black.

NEWS OF THE STATE

The twenty-ninth exhibition of the Missouri State Poultry Show was officially opened in Richmond Tuesday afternoon. Exhibitors came from all parts of Missouri, and also from Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa, Oklahoma, Texas, Kentucky, Illinois and New Jersey. The show will close tonight.

Closing of motion picture theaters and other places of amusement in cities of the state where epidemics prevail may be ordered by the state board of health in a few days, it was declared at the board's office in Jefferson City Thursday. There are a number of places in the state where both smallpox and diphtheria are prevalent.

A committee from the Missouri Welfare League, composed of Miss Carroll Bates and Mrs. Ben R. Freese of St. Louis and Mrs. E. L. Calfee of Unionville, appeared before the state prison board at Jefferson City Thursday and submitted arguments to the effect that women convicts should be moved from the penitentiary and placed on one of the prison farms. The prison board has not taken any definite action in regard to the recommendation because there are about eighty women convicts and the farms owned by the state are not equipped for keeping so many women prisoners.

N. F. Morse and L. F. Powers, St. Louis, representing the Automobile Club of Missouri, held a meeting in Sedalia Thursday with automobile owners and installed a branch of the organization of which Mr. Powell will be manager.
